As an adult participant, I agree to the following terms:

1. I will be a participant in the area I am assigned to.
2. I will attend all sessions.
3. I will ensure that the students under my care adhere to Conference Rules and attend all functions if they are able.
4. I will adhere to the Adult Curfew in order to be considerate to all delegates and adults.
5. I will attend as part of a delegation and will be wholly accountable to that YMCA.
6. My actions and words will reflect positively on myself, my YMCA, and the CVC both on the mountain, at home, and on the internet.

I understand that if I do not agree with these terms, or I exhibit behavior that is contrary to these terms or contrary to the spirit of the YMCA I will not be allowed to attend the conference.

Participant Communications

While it is appropriate to remain in contact throughout the year with delegates and Y's Guys, there are limits. Below are some examples of appropriate contact:

- Posting on their Facebook wall every now and then or for special occasions (Birthdays, start of school, accomplishments, etc.)
- Short and infrequent emails, text messages, or phone calls that do not include personal information about you and that do not ask for personal information about them.

Some examples of inappropriate contact are:

- Sending Facebook, Texts, or emails about personal matters (i.e. not related to YMCA programs, etc.)
- Phone calls related to personal matters
- Constant communication by any means (i.e. more than once per week)
- Sending or receiving of photos
- Face to face contact outside of normal YMCA events, unless approved by YMCA Staff member. Staff members must have approval of a supervisor.
- Any face to face contact at your residence or their residence.

Facilitators

The role of Facilitator is a very unique role that demands an individual who possess a high amount of character, empathy, patience, dedication to teens, and a good sense of humor. Spiritual discussions are a natural and integral part of the Christian Values Conference Experience. Facilitators must be comfortable discussing Christian principles with teens. It is not the job of a facilitator to "convert" a student; however they must be prepared to answer questions when they come up. The life and behavior of a facilitator must exemplify Christian character and the values of the YMCA. Facilitators must be comfortable communicating the family program openly and honestly.

If selected as a facilitator, I agree to the following terms:

1. I will follow the family program that is designed specifically for the experience by the Conference Leadership.
2. I will attend all training sessions to review the Program and prepare for the week and support the other facilitators. I will also attend all scheduled events.
3. My actions and words will reflect positively on myself, my YMCA, and the CVC both on the mountain, at home, and on the internet.

Participation in YMCA programs indicates personal acceptance of this Agreement.
